

Glocester Libraries Presents:

September 2019 Children's Programs

Library Card Scavenger Hunt: September is Library Card Month! Visit our children's room at Glocester Manton during the month of September and use your sleuthing skills to solve our Library Card Scavenger Hunt. Each week the library cards will move to new locations, so come in every week to play! September 3—September 30 during library hours.

Age Level: Kindergarten (readers) & up, pre-readers with caregiver help. No registration required. Glocester Manton Library

Buster the Teaching School Bus: AAA Northeast brings Buster the Teaching School Bus to the library! This interactive program teaches children about staying safe around cars, buses, and where they drive. This is a great child-friendly program where children get to interact directly with Buster the Teaching School Bus!

Monday, September 9 at 4:00 p.m. Registration is required.

Age Level: PreK-Grade 2 Glocester Manton Library

International Dot Day Party: Come and celebrate International Dot Day, based on the book "The Dot" by Peter Reynolds. "The Dot" celebrates self-expression and creativity, so join us for some creative "dot" crafts and a "dot" snack.

Monday, September 16 at 3:30 p.m. (early release day) Registration is required.

Age Level: Grade 1-3 Glocester Manton Library

Mini Fall Tote Bag: Join us to design your own miniature fall tote bag with paint, markers, and leaves! This is a fun craft to welcome the first day of fall!

Monday, September 23 at 5:00 p.m. Registration is required.

Age Level: Ages 3-8 Harmony Library

Colorful Braiding: Come and make a macramé bracelet or keychain for your backpack! If you have never made one, we will show you how. If you know how, try your hand at creating a new pattern or show a beginner how to create one!

Wednesday, September 25th at 4:30 p.m. Registration is required.

Age Level: Grade 3 & up Harmony Library

Make A Haunted House: Out of boxes, paint, glue, and other crafting supplies, participants will be able to make their very own haunted house! Once completed, the houses will be displayed in the display case near the entrance of the library for the entire month of October. After Halloween, participants are welcome to take their house home or donate it to the library. Happy Hauntings!

Monday, September 30th at 4:00 p.m. Registration is required.

Age Level: Ages 7 & up Harmony Library
