

GLOCESTER LIBRARIES' MAY 2019 YOUTH PROGRAMS

MAY IS FOR MOM!

Children's Programs (Register online at glocesterlibraries.org)

Mom & Me Tea Time

Saturday, May 11, 1:30 p.m., Gloucester Manton Library

Age Level: Children in Pre K-Grade 5 and their Moms

A hands-on approach to learning about making your own tea including sampling teas which you can make at home! All teas are healthy, mild and great for kids of all ages.

Mom & Me Yoga

Saturday, May 18, 1:30 p.m., Harmony Library

Age Level: Children in Pre K-Grade 5 and their Moms

Spend a relaxing hour with your child! Moms and their children can attend this special yoga session to celebrate Mother's Day!

Make Mom a Book

Wednesday, May 1, through Friday, May 31, during library hours, Gloucester Manton Library

Age Level: All Ages

"Drop In" to the Gloucester Manton Library and celebrate Mother's Day! In May, we will be creating books for Mom in our Children's Room.

Mothers Day Card & Tissue Paper Dragonfly

Wednesday, May 1, through Thursday, May 30, during library hours, Harmony Library

Age Level: All Ages

"Drop In" to the Harmony Library for two crafts this month. The first two weeks of May will feature tulip Mother's Day cards, and the second two weeks of May, we will be creating tissue paper dragonflies in our Children's Room.

Tween/Teen Programs

SAVE THE DATE: Tween/Teen Volunteer Meeting

Wednesday, June 5, 3:30 p.m., Gloucester Manton Library

Age Level: 6 - 8 grades

We are gearing up for our Summer Reading Program, "A Universe of Stories." Tween/Teen Volunteers are always needed and much appreciated. If you are interested in being a volunteer this summer, plan on attending our Tween/Teen Volunteer Meeting.
