

Glocester Manton Library

NEWSLETTER

February
2018

Glocester Manton Library 568-6077
glocesterlibraries.org

HOURS:

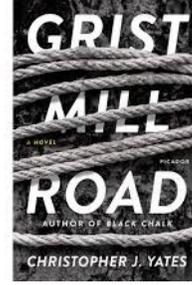

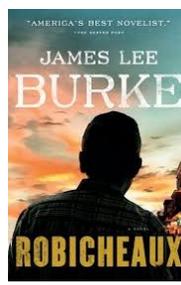

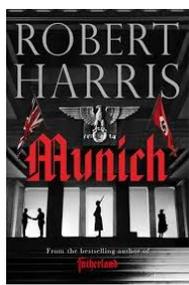

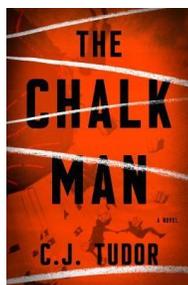

Monday 10-8
Tuesday 10-8
Wednesday 10-8
Thursday Closed
Friday 10-8
Saturday 10-3
Closed Saturdays in July & August

Book Discussion and Dinner

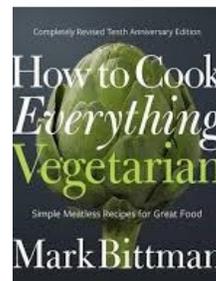

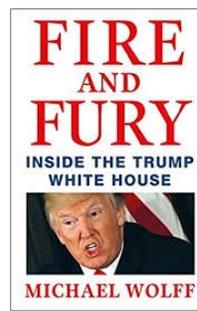

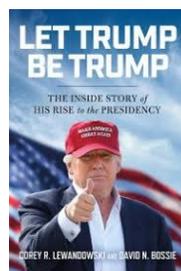

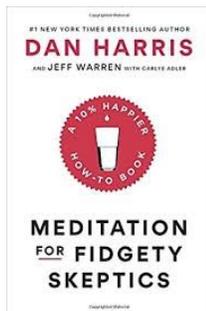

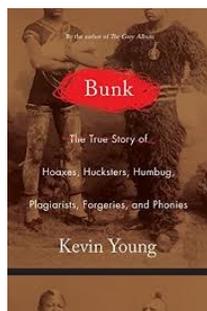

Hillbilly Elegy: A Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis
by J.D. Vance

Enjoy a dinner and a lively discussion about a book that has received a great deal of critical acclaim. Hillbilly Elegy is described as a compassionate and discerning analysis of the white underclass that has helped drive the politics of rebellion. The author combines first hand experience and thoughtful inquiry to advance the conversation about poverty in America.

New Fiction

New Non-Fiction

Story Time 2018 Winter Schedule

Baby Story Time (Infant to 2 years old) 10:00 am, Thursday at Harmony Library (Begins February 1)

Toddler Time (2–3.5 years old) 10:30am Tuesday at Harmony Library (Begins January 30)

Toddler Time (2-3.5 years old) 10:30am Friday at Glocester Manton Library (Begins February 2)

Preschool (3.5-5 years old) 10:30am Wednesday at Glocester Manton Library (Begins January 31)

Preschool (3.5-5 years old) 11:00am Thursday at Harmony Library (Begins February 1)

Fermenting Vegetables with Kaylyn Keane of Lost Art Cultured Foods

Tuesday, February 20, 2018 at 6:00pm

Fermenting veggies and sauerkraut-making is an old school tradition making a huge comeback- it's an easy, delicious and fun way to add healthy natural probiotics in your diet! Join us for a workshop with Kaylyn Keane from Lost Art Cultured Foods including a discussion on the history and benefits of fermenting vegetables and a demonstration on how easy it is to get started at home! There will be samples of Lost Art's products like sauerkraut and Beetkraut to taste as well as a chance to roll up your sleeves and make a batch of your own!

$5.00 Materials fee. Please register.

Glocester Manton Library

(401) 568-6077 glocesterlibraries.org

February
2018

Don't Forget!
Glocester Manton Library participates in the Amazon Smile Program.

February is Love your Library Month!

Adult Programs

Fearless Art Club: During the month of February, members will continue explore the art of drawing in ink and adding color. New members are always welcome! Wednesdays, February 14 and 28 at 2:00pm. Please register.

Wednesday Afternoon Book Discussion: The group will discuss Readers of Broken Wheel Recommend by Katarina Bivald. Wednesday, February 21 at 1:30pm.

Tuesday Matinees: New release movies are shown on the big screen as they become available. Light refreshments are served. Tuesdays at 2:00pm. No registration. January 2, 9, 16, 23, & 30.

Fermenting Vegetables: Fermenting veggies and sauerkraut-making is an old school tradition making a huge comeback- it's an easy, delicious and fun way to add healthy natural probiotics in your diet! Join us for a workshop with Kaylyn Keane from Lost Art Cultured Foods including a discussion on the history and benefits of fermenting vegetables and a chance to roll up your sleeves and make your own! Tuesday, February 20, 2018 at 6:00pm. $5.00 materials fee. Please register.

Children's & Family Programs

Fun with Fondue: Children in grades K-5 are invited to try their hand at Fondue. We will be frosting our cupcakes using a fondue pot, and then adding a variety of fun toppings! Monday, February 12, 2018 at 4:30. Grades K-5, please register.

Creative Dance Classes: Heritage Ballet of Lincoln, R.I. will offer free classes exploring the basics of ballet with a mix of creative dance. These classes are designed for ages 4 & 5. Classes begin Wednesday, October 11 at 4:30pm. Please register.

Valentine Cookie Fun: Here is where you get to be creative! Children in grades K-5 are encouraged to create yummy Valentine cookie masterpieces using frosting and sprinkles. Wednesday, February 14 at 4:30pm. Please register. This program will be held at Harmony Library.

Air Hockey: Enjoy a day off from school by dropping in to the Harmony Library for a friendly game of air hockey. We'll have the air hockey table set up so children can play against friends or parents. Tuesday, February 20, 2018 from 2:00 to 4:00pm. Ages 5 years and older.

Make It, Take It Craft

Children ages 5 years plus are invited to drop by the children's room during the month of February for Valentine themed crafts they can make and take home. Children under 5 may need parental Assistance.