

July 11 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 3: Sprague Farm

Sprague Farm hosts majestic stone walls and numerous trails. For our first visit this summer, we'll visit a meticulously restored cemetery.

*We will meet at the parking lot on Pine Orchard Road.

July 18 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 4: Steere Hill Conservation Area

Steere Hill offers a couple hundred acres of gentle slopes, vernal pools, miles of stone walls, and scenic ledge vistas. For this first visit, we'll hike the Ridge and Stone Dam Trails.

*We will meet at the parking lot on Putnam Pike ACROSS from the Harmony Post Office

July 25 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 5: Pulaski Park

Wide and well-maintained trails offer a walk over a stream through a covered bridge and ending with views of a lovely pond.

*We will meet at the parking lot marked "Area 3 Toilets. Playfield. Picnic Shelter 2."

August 1 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 6: Heritage Park

Heritage Park offers 115 acres of trails crossing several streams and passing by a shepherd's hut. We'll climb Steere Hill and then head back along the Outer Loop Trail and cross a small wooden bridge.

* We'll meet at the parking lot on Chestnut Oak Road

Glocester Libraries Walking Club 2018

Aug. 8 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 7: Sprague Farm

For this walk, we'll hike on the main trail, passing the remains of two farmsteads and continue on along the John Ridge Trail and Colonel Anthony Trail.

*We will meet at the parking lot on Pine Orchard Road.

August 15 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 8: Steere Hill Conservation Area

For our second visit to Steere Hill, we will walk the Field, Cutter, and Phillips Trails with a side trip to an unmarked cemetery.

*We will meet at the parking lot on Putnam Pike ACROSS from the Harmony Post Office

June 20 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 1: Acotes Hill Cemetery

In 1842, Acotes Hill was the site of a confrontation between Thomas Wilson Dorr's "People's Rights" faction and Samuel Ward King's "Law & Order" group. For most local residents, however, this location is simply known as Acotes Hill Cemetery, an iconic Glocester landmark.

*We will meet at the ballfield parking lot across from Dino's.

June 27 at 8:00 a.m.

Walk 2: Ponaganset High School Cross Country Trail

Used by the PHS Cross Country Team and host to the State Cross Country Championships, wide and well-groomed trails boast 3 bridges and one beautifully crafted covered bridge.

*We will meet at the parking lot next to the athletic fields (the lot furthest to the right at the high school complex).
